

Wait, That's Not All You Get

In addition to the central Ministry of Education and Training website at www.edu.gov.on.ca, here are a few other sites that may interest you:

youthjobs.gov.on.ca

Need help with the job hunt?
Check out the web pages of programs for students and youth – including Job Connect, Apprenticeship, and Young Entrepreneurs.

ilc.edu.gov.on.ca

Read up about the secondary-level correspondence courses offered to Ontario residents by the ministry's Independent Learning Centre.

osap.gov.on.ca

Find information about the Ontario Student Assistance Program, check the status of your OSAP application, or even apply online.

Contact Us

If you can't find what you're looking for, send us an e-mail message while you're online. You can use the handy website form in the Questions and Feedback area, or simply send your message to our inquiries office at info@edu.gov.on.ca.

Contact the ministry by telephone at (416) 325-2929 in Toronto, or toll-free across Ontario at 1-800-387-5514.

To request additional copies of this brochure, please send an e-mail message to web-info@edu.gov.on.ca or fax us at (416) 325-2934.

Ministry of Education and Training

Printed on recycled paper

98-250

ISBN 0-7778-7701-5

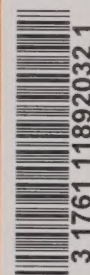

© Queen's Printer for Ontario, 1999

Ontario

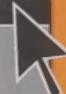

Government
Publications

CA20N
DE
-2049

Education Online

School
College
University
Training
Career

www.edu.gov.on.ca

Education Information Live

Looking for information on education and training in Ontario?

Visit the Ministry of Education and Training's website for up-to-date ministry documents, resources, and program information.

To see what's new in Ontario's education system, point your Internet browser to our central site at:

www.edu.gov.on.ca

What's Online?

The ministry releases new public documents electronically as well as on paper. Information available online, in both English and French, includes official publications, statistics, directories, and answers to frequently asked questions about education and training in Ontario.
And new items are added every week.

Check out these website offerings:

- a guide to the Ontario Summer Jobs program
- the new provincial curriculum
- information about student-focused funding
- the new provincial report cards
- school and school board directories
- information about apprenticeship and
training

What's New?

Stop by the What's New? area to see our most recent postings, to search the site by key word, or to consult our website directory.

If you'd like us to notify you by e-mail when we add something new to the site – such as a news release or a new publication – just add your Internet address to our mailing list while you're online.

Try the Links

Connections to Ontario school board, college, and university websites are among the extensive links to education, training, and employment information services provided on the ministry's website.

Career Gateway pages provide a great starting point for online exploration of the job market and job preparation ideas.